Lecturer in Law

FACULTY OF LAW, HUMANITIES AND THE ARTS

- Fixed Term Appointment (15 months)

The University of Wollongong (UOW) is in the top 2% of universities worldwide. The School of Law is part of the Faculty of Law, Humanities and the Arts and has an excellent reputation for the quality of its legal education and scholarship in the field of interdisciplinary research across law, society and culture.

The School of Law is recruiting a Lecturer for a teaching intensive role. The School is looking for individuals who have prior experience teaching at tertiary level particularly in the areas of Property Law and Equity and Trusts.

To be successful in this role you will need to be able to work independently as well as being an excellent team member. You will be able to manage conflicting deadlines and provide high level subject delivery as well as actively participate in the activities of the School including promotional and professional engagement activities.

You will be prompted to respond to the selection criteria as part of the online application process. You will be able to save your application and submit at a later date, any time prior to the closing date for the position.

For further information please contact Associate Professor Cassandra Sharp +61 2 4221 5532 or Mr John Littrich +61 2 4221 3730.
